MURDER CHARGES

Remain on the Circuit Court Docket for Trial

ONE SET FOR MONDAY AND OTHER TUESDAY.

Verdicts Returned Yesterday Against
Mark Kennett and Ed Warren,
Murderer and Accessor.

PROCEEDINGS OF YESTERDAY'S SESSION.

Judge Reed surely has a record breaker this criminal term of the circuit court as regards killing cases. He has disposed of four already, while there are two more cases to come up, one tomorrow against Ed Scott and one Tuesday against Willis Mount, both white. When there are as many as three killings before one term of court this is considered unusually large, but six is something unprecedented for many years back, and the judge intends to finish with every single one of them if possible.

The H. H. Loving case was disposed of last week, while yesterday the jury in the case against Mark Kennett, colored, returned a verdict fixing his penalty at twenty-one years in the penitentiary for killing Harvey Johnson, colored, by inflicting fatal stab wounds on him several weeks ago, at Second and Court streets, during a fight which resulted from Johnson asking Kennett for a drink of whiskey. Kennett stabbed him on the neck and to the hollow at the collarbone with a long bladed knife, the scrap occurring out on the sidewalk. Johnson died that night at the hospital. Frank Kennon, colored, held Johnson while Kennett stabbed him, and for this the jury sent Kennon up for twelve years. It was claimed that Ed Warren, also colored, was an accessory to the crime, urging Kennett on, but the jury acquitted Warren and turned him loose. The Kennett case was tried by itself and those against the two others heard together, both juries reporting yesterday morning after remaining out all the night before.

A Case Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning Judge Reed will take up the murder charge against Ed Scott, the 19-year-old boy who killed Charles J. Stewart, the plumber, out on Kentucky avenue at Tenth street several Sunday nights ago. Stewart and several friends had stopped at the lunch stand on that corner for something to eat, when Ed Scott and Ed Bulger came by and yelled at them asking why they did not eat the whole stand. Stewart knocked Bulger down and then started away, the parties yelling at each other in separating. Stewart came back after getting a few feet away, and he and Scott came together when the latter drew his gun and shot the plumber in the stomach, Stewart dying instantly. Scott is out on $2,500 bond. In the examining court Judge Sanders held Scott over to the grand jury on the charge of shooting in sudden heat and passion and the jury changed it to murder and brought in an indictment to that effect.

The remaining killing case on the docket is that against Willis Mount. It will come up Tuesday morning, the judge ten days ago having postponed it to that date in order to get here absent witnesses, whose testimony will clear Mount, so the defense claims. Mount killed Nutty in a gambling room above the Stag saloon on North Fourth street, near Broadway over two years ago, and this is his third trial. He got twenty-one years at the last term. When the case was continued ten days ago a rule was issued by Judge Reed ordering Sheriff Lamb, of Crittenden county, to show cause why he had not served the summons on John Whitnell to come here and testify in the case. Whitnell being in the room the night of the killing. Yesterday the sheriff replied that the reason the document was never served on Whitnell was because the latter was not there. Now he is being looked for in other quarters, as his testimony is badly wanted.

Yesterday's Business.

Adeline Morton, colored, had been indicted on the charge of robbing John Rudolph of $25 out about Ninth and Washington streets, but this was yesterday reduced to petty larceny and she given thirty days in the county jail.

Hewlett Jones, white, got one year for stealing the bicycle of Grocer James Lally, of Fourth and Elizabeth streets, and trading the bike to another to whom Jones claimed the wheel was his. In another case charging Jones with obtaining money under false pretenses the defendant was dismissed.

One year was given Herman Clemens, colored, who confessed to having stolen the flock of Mary Mason, colored, and selling it to S. S. Meadows for thirty-five cents, the latter being the South Sixth street second-hand dealer.

Queenie Ray, colored, confessed to having broken into the residence of Liveryman John B. Terrell, who resides on Washington between Eighth and Ninth streets. She was caught in the house by Mr. Terrell. She was given two years in the penitentiary.

Grand Jury's Work.

The grand jury has much before it for investigation, and yesterday Judge Reed extended its session until next Saturday at which time it will have to adjourn, as court comes to a close then.

The jury yesterday returned indictments against the following parties charging them with conducting bawdy houses: Nellie Pope, Sue Eggleston, Lucile Trammell, Ella Howe, Annie Cox, Ida Eastwood, Mollie Grooms, Frankie Dixon, Mollie Neff and Fannie Wilson.

George Armstrong, colored, was indicted on the charge of cutting Eugene Jackson, colored, in the stomach one afternoon last week at Abe Marcolfsky's saloon, on Second and Court streets, as the result of a quarrel they had because Jackson guied the other about Armstrong working on a small tugboat. This case was set down for the 14th day of the term.

Frank James, colored, was indicted on the charge of shooting at Gabe Fletcher, colored, one night two years ago, on North Ninth street. This charge was set down for the 14th day also. James was employed on the Cairo division of the Illinois Central and after the shooting skipped out. He was caught down in Tennessee several weeks ago and brought back by Detective Moore.

John Hale, colored, is charged with stealing cigars from the Taylor O. Fisher establishment where he was employed as porter. It is claimed he sold cigars to W. B. Martin for $1, some to F. M. Matlock for $2, and some to John Morton for $1. The grand jury did not investigate the charges, but passed them up for the next April jury to examine into. Hale was then released on his own personal bond of $200.

There is a similar charge against Bigger Hale, brother of the other, who is accused of selling cigars to F. M. Matlock for $2, after taking them from the Fisher store. This matter was also left over for the next April grand jury.

Tomorrow's Docket.

Beside the Ed Scott killing case the judge has set down for trial tomorrow the indictment charging Robert Hickman, alias Robert Mahaffey, with stealing a cow from Dairyman Claude Russell, who lives one mile from the city on the Cairo pike. There is also set for tomorrow the indictment accusing Sam Crouch, colored, with breaking into the warehouse at E. W. Pratt's coal yard, on Ninth and Harrison streets, and filling his bag with coal. C. W. Meacham, one of the coal yard attaches, caught him before he could get away and put him under arrest.

Civil Matters.

While hearing the criminal cases Judge Reed made a number of civil orders.

Belle Rudolph was granted a divorce from E. W. Rudolph, restored to her maiden name of Belle Bernhart, and given possession of their two children, Tonic, aged 13 years, and Omie, aged ten years.

Isaac Benberry was given a divorce from Ida Benberry.

Maud Augustus was given a dissolution of the matrimonial ties binding her to H. W. Augustus. She was given the custody of Wm. Lewis, their seven-year-old son.

John Young was divorced from Lizzie Young.

In the suit of Gus G. Singleton against James E. Eaker, the court ordered certain monies paid over to Oscar Kahn, guardian for Henry Singleton, a minor.

The court decided that the watches jewelry and other valuables in controversy belonged to the estate of the late Fred Hessig. Last spring Mrs. Ida Hessig sued her husband, Dr. Herman Hessig, for divorce. She left some watches, jewelry money and other valuables with her lawyers, Hendrick, Miller & Marble, who deposited same in their safe for safekeeping. They unfortunately left the door to the safe open and one morning while the porter, Sherman Lunderman, colored, was cleaning up the office he stole the valuables and was sent to the reform school. Afterwards Mrs. Hessig died and her husband, Dr. Hessig, claimed the articles. Public Administrator Felix Rudolph took charge of the wife's estate and also claimed

THE COUNCIL TOMORROW HOLDS ITS LAST REGULAR SESSION.

It Is Possible That Several Called Sessions Will Be Necessary to Complete Everything.

Tomorrow evening at the City Hall general assembly chamber there will be held the last regular session by the old council, as by the time for the next state gathering the Republicans will have come in and Democrats gone out.

Many important questions come up tomorrow as the boards are desirous of finishing everything so the Republicans can come in with nothing left over.

The aldermen hold their last regular gathering next Thursday evening and they will wind up all possible in trying to get everything passed on by old members before they go out.

Ordinarily when the year comes the outgoing bodies try their best to complete everything they have started so they will not leave over any unfinished business for the incoming bodies to complete. Always heretofore it has been necessary for several called meetings to be held by both bodies the last week of the year because at the last stated gathering they cannot give final passage to pending ordinances and close up all the orders before them.

COLLEGE PEOPLE.

Committee Meet Again But Nothing Given Out For the Public.

Yesterday afternoon at the Fraternity building a meeting was held by the committee of citizens that has in charge the question of locating here the Methodist college to be built out of the Mrs. Susan Speed estate which was left the Louisville conference of M. E. churches by the deceased.

It was thought the committeemen would have something to give out after yesterday's session, but they announced that things had not reached the completed form they expected, therefore they did not desire to state they had reached in their arrangements. They will not say what they have done until things get in definite form.

The valuables, filing a petition with Judge Reed to have them turned over to him. On looking into the matter the court decided they were the property of the late Fred Hessig, who was a brother of Dr. Herman Hessig, who died last year.

Smith Suit Dismissed.

There was entered up yesterday an agreed order wherein the parties to both sides of the litigation agree to a dismissal of the suit of Joseph H. Smith against James P. Smith, administrator of the estate of the late Captain J. R. Smith.

Joseph Smith is a son of the late captain, while James P. Smith is the other son. The former sued the estate administrator, asking the court to nullify a deed Joseph Smith claimed he signed during the life of his father and in which deed, the son contends he transferred to his parent his interest in about $50,000 worth of real estate. Joseph Smith claimed he did not know what he was signing when he attached his signature to the document, hence the suit, but now matters have been settled and he voluntarily withdraws the action.

Not Yet Filed.

Hon. Hal Corbett yesterday stated that he was still at work drawing up the documents wherein he will ask for a new trial for H. H. Loving, who has been given five years for killing H. A. Rose. The lawyers have until the last of this week to make the motion for the new hearing as court does not come to a close until next Saturday.

Justice's Court.

Tomorrow morning Justice Richard J. Barber will convene his magisterial court at his office on Legal Row, but he will not try any cases, as he is busy now checking over the reports of the county treasurer, and receiver of the sinking fund, preparatory to these officials making a settlement Tuesday with the fiscal court that is composed of all the magistrates of the city and county, and who meet that day to effect the settlements with these officials.

Got $500 Judgment.

The circuit court at Eddyville has given a judgment of $500 against the Illinois Central railroad in favor of a negro woman named Campbell, who was injured when she stepped off a train at Grand Rivers some months ago.

HE WILL NOT ACCEPT PLACE OF SEWERAGE IN- SPECTOR.

Most Amusing Were the Expressions
Heard From Sore Republicans Yesterday.

The Republicans seem to have overlooked their hand when they selected and elected George Gardner as city sewerage inspector during the joint councilmanic and aldermanic session Friday evening, because Mr. Gardner said yesterday that he was not an applicant for the position, did not want the job and would refuse to accept same. Continuing he said that he felt justly proud of the unsolicited honor, heaped upon him and felt thankful to those who favored him but that he could not accept the place because he is engaged in the sewerage contracting business with Mr. Charles Robertson and could not afford to sacrifice his private interest to take the sewerage inspectorship.

Mr. Gardner was inspector several years ago, and the municipal legislative authorities wanted to re-elect him the last time, but he refused, on account of the salary being entirely too small to justify him serving. He has since been in the contracting business, laying nearly all the storm water sewerage in this city, while at present he and Mr. Robertson are putting down the $40,000 sanitary system over at Hopkinsville, but have stopped the work on account of winter weather being here.

As to his politics Mr. Gardner says the Republicans were mistaken in picking him up and electing him in one of that political belief, as he has always registered as a Democrat, but voted just to suit himself first, preferring men rather than politics in local affairs.

With the selection of Mr. Gardner it develops that only one Republican was chosen for any office, he being George Lehnhard, for city license inspector.

The new officers all take their positions the first of next year.

Disgruntled Republicans.

It was delightfully amusing yesterday to hear expressions over the city from the Republicans who were the sorest lot of people to be found anywhere in the world, while on the other side the Democrats everywhere are in high glee, and this could be heard from every side, without stinting their remarks. One Democrat yesterday said the greatest source of joy derived from the fact that the Republicans has been holding secret caucuses, giving out what they intended doing to the Democrats, bragging about the gag rule and deadlock they would cause etc. The Republicans claim they will nullify things, but the eminent lawyers of the city say the election was perfectly legal, and that mortals could not interfere with the opportune moment wherein Fate had a fire alarm turned in.

BANK TAXES

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. RE- DUCTION TO BE GIVEN THEM.

The State Banks Claim They Are Discriminated Against As Compared to Federal Banks.

Tomorrow evening when the council meets there will be brought in, by the finance committee of the joint boards, a recommendation that the state banks of this city be given a twenty-five per cent reduction on the assessment of their capital stock surplus and undivided profits. The document will suggest that the assessment made upon the balance of their holdings be continued just like heretofore and not interfered with.

The presidents and other officials of the state banks here claim that they are discriminated against when compared to the national banks, on coming to that point where the municipal authorities assess the bank property for city tax purposes. Basing their complaint on this ground the bankers asked that a conference be held with them by the finance committee from the two public boards, council and aldermen. This was granted and the gathering between the parties were held Friday afternoon at the office of Mayor Yeiser in the City Hall. At that time the bankers in detail explained matters to the committeemen and the latter decided on their recommendation which is agreeable to the financial institution authorities.

ARE TO INSTALL COUNTY OFFICERS

MR. CHARLES SPINNER LEFT THIS MORNING FOR LOUISVILLE.

Supt. Egan of Louisville Division in the City—Mr. Keeny Doing Alright.

This morning at 1:40 o'clock Mr. Charles Spinner, of the Illinois Central railroad, went to Louisville where today he attends the public installation to be held by the officers for the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors' order there. The new officials were chosen a week or two ago and will today be inducted into their respective positions during the session that will be held at the Falls City Hall.

The branch there is division No. 89, and Mr. Spinner is a charter member of the body, having belonged to it for the past thirty years. He was a conductor for thirty three years on different roads, and one of the most efficient and best known the country over, but for several years past has been connected with the car building department for the local shops.

Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central railroad, arrived here yesterday from Louisville and is now at The Palmer. This is his first trip here for several weeks past, his duties keeping him at the other end of the line for that length of time. He reports everything running out on the division as smoothly as possible, and this is all that could be hoped for.

Doing Alright.

Fireman Louis Feeny, of Chicago, is doing alright at the railroad hospital where last week his middle toe on the right foot was removed on account of injuries he sustained, that injured the bone of the toe. He will be able to leave the institution by the last of next week.

HAS TO SUE

CAPTAIN FARNSLAY WILL IN- STITUTE HIS DAMAGE PROCEEDINGS.

The New Madrid, Mo., People Refuse to Compromise at the Figure Set by Hon. Hal Corbett.

Hon. Hal Corbett yesterday stated that the New Madrid, Mo., authorities had rejected the compromise offered by himself and Capt. Frank Farnslay and that now the damage suit of the latter would be instituted against the city marshal of that city and that municipality in the federal court at Cape Girardeau, Mo., right away.

Capt. Farnslay was on the towboat Beaver that plied the Mississippi river, and one day some part of the boiler let loose and permitted escaping steam to badly scald Vol Davis, the second engineer. At that time the craft was near New Madrid, Mo., and Capt. Farnslay with several others of the crew left the boat out in the river and started in a skiff to the bank to get medicine for the injured engineer. At that time yellow fever dawned at New Orleans was at its height, and the New Madrid authorities believing that the towboat Beaver had come from infected quarters, refused to permit the captain and others to land, a quarantine against boats being maintained at that time in New Madrid. The boatmen started to return to their craft when the city marshal, who had charge of the quarantine officers, became mad, and made those in the skiff come to bank. Getting them there he escorted the trio uptown where they were lodged in jail and kept there several hours. Finally when they learned the Beaver was not from infected district, and that the officers and crew of the boat had health certificates, the authorities released all the people incarcerated.

After returning here Capt. Farnslay got Mr. Corbett to draw up a $10,000 damage suit against the marshal and municipality. The two then went to Cape Girardeau, Mo., to file same in the United States court, but the New Madrid people learning of this offered to compromise that matter, realizing they were in the wrong. Mr. Corbett set a figure for Capt. Farnslay, but the New Madrid people refused to accept same and now the suit will be brought the attorney going over to Cape Girardeau shortly to lodge the documents with the federal court clerk there.

Made Good His Work Before Mrs.
Boyd Suspicioned Anything.

This morning between 12 and 1 o'clock burglars broke into the residence of Mrs. Samuel Boyd, of 1349 South Ninth street, and stole $1 in money, that being the only thing missed thus far.

Mrs. Boyd and family had retired for the night, and this morning shortly after 12 o'clock she was awakened from her slumbers by a noise towards the kitchen, but thought it was only her cook coming in a little late. Things were acting too suspicious however, and she called to the Meadowe family that lies next door and one of the young men came over. They then went into the kitchen and found that the burglar had prized open the window, and after procuring $4 from the bedroom dresser, had gone out the back door. He had skipped out before they could detect him.

Gift Shoes

THE demand for sensible things for Christmas gifts is on the increase. That is one reason why we are selling so many "Dorothy Dodd" shoes for that purpose. Another reason is found in the beauty of the shoes themselves, and in their obvious appropriateness for Christmas gifts. What more delicate compliment can be paid to woman than an appreciation of her pretty foot, daintily shod? The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe is itself such a compliment. It gives a woman's foot a different look from those of the crowd. And the line affords shoes for every type of feet and for every kind of service. Grant us the favor of showing them.

You run no risk. Should your purchase not fit the favored one, we will cheerfully make the exchange at any time, giving her the exact style and size desired.

This Week at The Kentucky

TUESDAY NIGHT George Sidney in "Buzzy Izzy's Vacation."
 THURSDAY NIGHT John Griffith in "King Richard the Third."

"Buzzy Izzy's Vacation."
 Theatre-goers have invariably taken kindly to a theatrical entertainment that includes plenty of good wholesome comedy, interspersed with catchy songs and lively music. Such an entertainment comes to the Kentucky on Tuesday night, for George Sidney and his big company are booked to appear here on that date. This is Mr. Sidney's fourth season as a musical comedy star and he has been one of the most successful attractions that has been sent on the road by E. D. Stair. When he was a member of the Ward & Vokes organization, Mr. Sidney created a character—that of a funny little Hebrew, Izzy Mark, that immediately attracted the favorable attention of theatre-goers everywhere, and his success was assured from the opening performance. So popular did the character become that musical comedy was written around Mr. Sidney and "Buzzy Izzy", as the piece was called, taken Izzy on a vacation and our theatre-goers will be treated to a glimpse of the clever little chap enjoying himself in the title role of "Buzzy Izzy's Vacation."

John Griffith's Company.
 It too often happens that well known stars, particularly those who play tragedy, appear here with inadequate support, or maybe the trouble is the star is really so good that the average support shows to a disadvantage in comparison. This is generally due to haste and carelessness in organization, for bad actors often cost as much as good ones, and their cleverness is best illustrated in their getting good engagements—through their assurance and nerve—qualities that many good actors lack. So, after all, it isn't always the economical views of the management that accounts for inefficiency. In the case of John Griffith's company the artists were all engaged fully three months before the opening of the present season, and the engagements made contingent upon the results at rehearsals. They are all people of vast experience in Shakespeare's plays, and the ideals—according to the manager's view—of the roles they have been engaged for. The rehearsals have been frequent and arduous, and many changes made with a view to a betterment of the entirety. When the company left New York for its present tour, it filled all the physical and artistic requirements of the star and management, and will appear here intact on Thursday night, December 21, at The Kentucky Theatre in Shakespeare's immortal tragedy "King Richard the Third."

KING IMPROVING

WILL BE NEXT WEEK BEFORE HE IS OUT OF HOSPITAL.

Constable Phil Hisey Able to Be Around the House—Mr. Rock Better Last Night.

Conductor Thomas King, of the street railway company, is getting better at Riverside hospital, but will not be able to get up until after Christmas, as the wound in his leg is not healing fast enough for him to leave before that time.

King is the conductor who was shot one week from last night up on South Third street by some man with whom he had a quarrel regarding street car fare. John Smedley, bricklayer, is under arrest on charge of being the one who fired the shot, but cannot be given a trial until King is able to attend court.

Can Walk Around.
 Constable Phil Hisey seems to be getting better with his paralytic stroke at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lillard Sanders, of South Sixth, near Clark street. He has been confined for several months now and for a while was in a serious condition, but is now able to be up and walking around the house.

Some Better.
 Last night Mr. George Rock was considered some better by the physicians, but they cannot tell how long the improved condition will remain on account of the prolonged nature of his illness and his advanced age.

Condition Serious.
 Noah McLaughlin is in quite a serious condition at his home in Littleville, as result of being knocked in the head Thursday at the I. C. shops by Frank Burch, with a monkey wrench, during a fight. Both are helpers at the shops and McLaughlin seems to be suffering from concussion of the brain and fractured skull.

REDMEN SELECT

MEMBERS WILL BE PUT UP FRIDAY FOR THE DIFFERENT OFFICES.

Order of Eagles Now Have Over 200 Members—Drummers' Quarters Being Worked On.

Next Friday evening the Red Men's lodge will nominate officers at their meeting in the hall, on North Fourth street. The brethren put up those whom they want for the respective places, while the following meeting they ballot and elect. As the lodge is one of the largest in the city, and the night for nominations is a very important one, this means that the assembly room will be crowded with affiliates the coming Friday evening.

Eagles' Limit.
 Some weeks ago the Fraternal Order of Eagles of this city offered a fine $25 pin to the member getting the largest number of affiliates by the time the total membership reached 200, and Secretary L. P. Head yesterday stated that they now had about 200 members and he was going over the books to see which member got the largest number of new ones. He will have a report made by the time for the meeting of the lodge next Wednesday evening, at their quarters on Sixth and Broadway, this document to show who captured the prize.

The brotherly contest has been one of much interest to every member, a large bundle of applications have been turned in, hardly a week passing without at least ten being initiated into the organization.

Take Two Weeks.
 The carpenters and painters are busily engaged now remodeling and freshly painting the second floor of the building on Legal Row, the first floor of which is occupied by the Commercial club and the Retail Merchants' Association. The second story is for the Paducah Travelling Men's club and it is possible it will take until the last of this month before the respective offices are converted into one big quarter for the drummers' club rooms. This week Messrs. Ernest Lackey, Robert Benner and Will V. Green will pick out the furnishings for the rooms and have it ready for installation just as soon as the mechanics get everything ready for installation of the equipment. These three gentlemen compose the committee chosen to outfit the quarters.

After the Holidays.
 President Bagby, of the Carnegie library trustees, has been trying to get a meeting of that body the past week, but business keeps the trustees away. He has now decided not to have any session until after the holidays as there is nothing demanding immediate attention.

RUN CHANGED

MESSANGER HENNEBERGER BETWEEN PRINCETON AND EVANSVILLE.

Express Offices Beginning to Feel Effects of Heavy Holiday Trade—Mr. Abbott Satisfied.

Now since the Illinois Central leased the Tennessee Central and thereby effects an entrance into Nashville, there has been some shifting around by the American Express company's messengers who handle the expressage going over the I. C. Messenger Gaither Henneberger, who formerly ran between Hopkinsville and Cairo, has been transferred to the run between Princeton and Evansville, and makes his headquarters in former city. He is the son of Mr. Henry Henneberger, the coal and feed dealer of Harrison street.

Heavy Business.
 The express companies have already commenced feeling the results of the heavy business, incidental to arrival of the Christmas holidays, as shipments by express are becoming very heavy now and will rapidly increase in volume until the last of this week when the attaches will be kept very busy engaged, both day and night, receiving the packages, and sending them out. As it takes about one week to get delivered articles going only a few hundred miles, on account of the great rush during holidays holding back the bundles, the express agents state it would be the best thing for the public to forward their articles right away so as to insure them getting to their destination by Christmas.

Well Satisfied.
 Word from Manager Charles Abbott, of the Nashville, Tenn., office for the American Express company, is that he is well pleased with his new situation there, and believe the office will prove one of the largest in the South. Already it has built up a big business that is steadily increasing all the time.

Dog Eat Dog.

As The Register is known to be an independent democratic newspaper it can afford to say that the rise by which one of the republican councilmen was gotten away from the joint meeting of the two boards was but what may be termed peanut politics. We do not purpose to defend the act, for dishonesty and deception should not be countenanced by any one, yet in present day politics where do the people find honesty and fair dealing? From our knowledge of the so-called democratic and republican leaders in Paducah we have no hesitancy in saying that the trick played was nothing more than one could expect from either side and we will prove it before we close this article.

Personally we care not a whit as to who are to fill the subordinate offices, and in fact did not know who were seeking those places, being satisfied that whoever might be elected would be so through methods of schemers, which could not stand the test of honesty. We happen to be exceedingly well acquainted with the methods of those who sought the election of the democrats, and also particularly well acquainted with the methods of the moving spirits behind the republicans. To our mind it was a case of dog eat dog, and aside from the effect the deception had upon the councilman in regard to the safety of his family, we see nothing in the matter for anyone to become excited over, for it was nothing more than what was to be expected. It was a political scheme of a very questionable variety, and that's all there was to it.

The Paducah Sun, the mouth-piece of the Fisher-Farley-Williamson republican gang becomes very indignant over the episode, and such exhibitions are disgusting to those acquainted with that gang's methods. All manner of questionable schemes and plots are hatched by that gang and rushed through in their conventions, and the records show that they are utterly unscrupulous in dealing with members of their own party, and anyone but an idiot will readily understand that in dealing with a political enemy they would be more so if possible than with their own party, provided the opportunity presented itself. In 1897 the Fisher-Farley contingent made Captain Williamson believe that they were for him for the nomination for mayor, and the day of the convention they three Williamson down and Farley captured the nomination; ever Frank Fisher left the chair where he was presiding and went among those in attendance urging them to vote for Farley. The writer was a spectator at that convention and saw and heard the whole proceedings. The fact that Alderman Farley voted for a democrat against young Williamson Friday night, and by that vote elected the democrat, shows the animosity that still exists between the two factions.

Politically speaking we have no confidence whatever in the republican gang, for they cannot be trusted among themselves. In 1895 when the republican council was elected, to whom did they give the minor offices? The best ones were given to certain democratic committeemen over life-long republicans and who were fully competent to fill the offices. Why? Because, as we understand it, it was a bargain made before the election. In other words to get an office they debauched the democratic party, and after getting into office, gave away valuable franchises to corporations at the expense of the taxpayers of Paducah. Then talk about their being indignant over the trick played on them two nights ago. They are superlative hypocrites. But this is ancient history so let's get down to the history of today.

Three months ago when the republicans met to nominate a city ticket they invited all opposed to the democratic ring to attend. They proclaimed that there should be no politics in municipal affairs. An indifferent democrat or two was slated on the ticket and throughout the campaign the slogan was "Non-partisan municipal affairs." Voters were appealed to on that ground, and we heard some of those candidates vow that party lines would not be drawn should they be elected. We saw those candidates lying or telling the truth? It was certainly one or the other. On the strength of the repeated declaration no doubt hundreds of democrats voted for the republicans, for they wanted a change and also to eliminate politics from city affairs. This is how the republicans were elected. Does anyone for a moment suppose that if the republicans had been honest with the people and declared that they would draw the party line that they would have been elected? No, not a single one would have been successful. The day after the election the Sun editorially said "We doff our hat to the independent voters of Paducah," and gave the independent democrats credit for the result. This was three finale to the hypocrisy and deceit perpetrated on the people of Paducah. In less than ten days after the election the Fisher-Farley-Williamson gang cracked the party whip over the backs of the men who owed their election to the independent democrats, and like slaves of old, they had them corralled up over John Farley's drug store and Williamson's marble yard, and forced them into a caucus and agreed upon a republican for each and every office to be filled. What now about the anti-election pledges and declarations? Less than a week ago the Sun published a list of the republicans to be elected, and asserted most positively that they would be elected, and that the republicans held the key to the situation. Contrast that publication with the editorial the day after the election and see if those who were influenced to vote for that crowd were not deceived in a most "despicable and contemptible manner." Will any intelligent man believe that men guilty of such conduct are above doing what was done by certain schemers Friday night?

We do not believe that two wrongs make a right, but when discussing the episode wherein the ten republicans were tricked, would it not be well to consider the matter in all of its phases? From the remarks made by hot-headed republicans and their organ we are to believe that it is perfectly fair and legitimate for men on a republican ticket to mislead and deceive the voters to get into office, but it is a high crime for any one to deceive them in order to elect democrats to the minor offices. The fact that the republicans obtained their election by a species of fraud, does not justify the trick played on them Friday night, still it furnishes grounds for the people to not waste any sympathy on that crowd of political frauds. The trick played was reprehensible, but not any more so than that played by the republicans on the people, and as stated above, it was a case of dog eat dog, and if any of our readers think that the Fisher-Farley gang are above any such methods they are either strangers in the city, or are not posted on the history of that crowd of political free-booters. And of their efforts to make capital out of the light into which they find themselves is disgusting to those who know them best.

The people were first flim-flammed, and then some unknown scamp flim-flammed the gang of flim-flammers. All of the talk about keeping the men elected from taking their offices is tommy-rot. The meeting was legally called, the election legally held, and when the presiding officer declared the candidates receiving the majority of the votes elected, that completed the act; the officer-elect at that moment acquired a property right of which he cannot be deprived except by due process of law. When the election occurred legally, the electors lost the power to reconsider. If the city clerk truly records what transpired, it makes no difference whether the records are approved or not. There is no power that can make a record other than a true record. If the point be raised that the election was fraudulent, but it was not, the very same point could be urged against the election of the republican members of the general council, for they, too, perpetrated an indirect fraud on the voters. Howling over the matter only makes it more ridiculous.

WARREN BACK

SERVED TIME IN THE FEDERAL PRISON FOR COUNTERFEITING.

Arguments Yet to Be Heard in the Schwab Case—Referee Goes to Wickliffe.

M. G. Warren, the man who was in the United States court here sent to the federal penitentiary for two years for passing counterfeit money, has been released and was yesterday in the city again, having come up here to give testimony before Referee E. W. Bagby. This is the first time he has been back since being taken to prison by Deputy United States Marshal George W. Saunders. He got much of his sentence off on account of good behavior.

Warren was caught in Marshall county last year when the federal authorities were rounding up so many of the counterfeiters in that vicinity. He got two years in prison for passing a $20 bill. While he was in jail here he filed a petition in bankruptcy and this litigation has been pending ever since. To defend the accused in the federal court Warren employed George Edwards and John Lovett, for $600, and gave them a lien on the real estate in Marshall county to guarantee them their fee. Now after Warren filed his petition in bankruptcy, the lawyers put their claim for their $600. Other creditors filed exceptions to their bill, and these exceptions were heard yesterday by the referee, but nothing was done. Exceptions were yesterday also filed to the sale of real estate made by Trustee H. B. Kennedy. He sold property for $1,700 once, and then on second sale it brought $1,400. Now others claim they will give $2,400 for the land, and except to the trustee selling it for $1,400. In the latter point the referee was given until tomorrow in which to file briefs.

Moses Schwab's Case.

All the testimony has been given in the case where the trustee of the Moses Schwab bankruptcy case claims that Schwab has not properly accounted for $10,000 coming into his hands. The lawyers in the case will make their arguments some day this week and the referee then render some opinion in the litigation.

Goes to Wickliffe.

Referee Bagby goes to Wickliffe Tuesday to hear evidence in support of the opposition the creditors to Thomas Reeves put in to his being granted a discharge.

Filed Petition.

John R. Cates, an Illinois Central railroad employe, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk John R. Puryear of the United States court. He gave $400 liabilities and no assets.

Steamboat Sold.

There was lodged with Clerk Puryear a document showing that James Mills had sold to E. O. Henderson the gasoline steamboat Saturn. The purchaser is of Danville, Tenn.

CLOSING WEEK

STUDENTS GO TO SCHOOL LAST TIME THIS YEAR THIS WEEK.

Trustees Will Hold Called Meeting Next Thursday Evening—Miss Singleton Recovering.

Tomorrow morning the pupils of the public schools start to their studies for the last week, as next Friday the buildings dismiss until January and on account of the Christmas holidays, and the pupils run at large during that period. Many of the teachers will leave for other points to spend the holidays, as a large number of them reside in outside towns and are teaching here.

School Board.

The school board holds a called session next Thursday evening for the purpose of allowing the teachers, superintendents and other attaches their December salary so they can have money for the Christmas holidays. As this is the only thing to do at the called session, and as it takes only a few minutes to perform same, the trustees will meet at some point down in the city and thereby obviate the necessity of going way out to the Washington building, on West Broadway, where their regular assembly quarters are.

Continues to Improve.

Miss Lizzie Singleton continues to improve at her private ward at the Riverside hospital, and will be able shortly to be sent to her home. She will not be well enough, however, to resume her teaching until the first of next year.

THE CHURCHES

REV. NEWELL WILL PREACH ABOUT CHRIST THIS MORNING.

Today It Will Be Decided Whether Revivals Continue at First Baptist Church.

This morning at the Broadway Methodist church Rev. T. J. Newell will preach on "Christ in the Heart and in the House" while at the evening hour he talks upon "The Religion that Saves". He especially requests that all parents possible be at the church this morning, as the sermon will be of particular interest to them.

About the Revival.

Today it will be decided whether the revivals at the First Baptist church continue for another week, or whether they will be brought to a close. Rev. John S. Cheek, Rev. Dr. Cates and the others have conducted them for four weeks now, and this is about one week longer than they usually exist, but probabilities are they may continue for seven days more, so much good is being accomplished.

Mechanicsburg Methodist.

At the Mechanicsburg Methodist church Rev. J. W. Cantrell will preach this morning at 10:45 o'clock and again this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Christian Science.

Christian science services will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at 527 Broadway, with subject of "Christian Science". Testimonial meeting will be held next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

WELL KNOWN HERE

MISS CAMILLE VON TRESS PASSED AWAY AT CINCINNATI.

Remains Will Probably Be Brought Here and Interred at Oak Grove Cemetery Beside Mother.

Yesterday City Auditor Alexander Kirkland received a telegram from Cincinnati announcing that Miss Camille J. Von Tress had died there yesterday morning, after a lingering illness with complicated diseases. She breathed her last at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Joseph A. Mackey, of the Queen City.

No definite arrangements have been made, but probabilities are the remains will be brought here tomorrow and taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Kirkland of West Broadway where the funeral services will be conducted, followed with interment at the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery. This is what will be done if the corpse is brought to this city.

The deceased had many friends here, although it is many years since she made this city her home. She was the daughter of the late Mrs. G. F. Rabb, who last summer died while sojourning at Mineral Well, near Kuttawa, thirty miles from this city up the Louisville division of the Illinois Central railroad. Mrs. Rabb was brought here and buried at Oak Grove.

For years the family resided at the old homestead of the Rabb's, which now stands beside Oehlschlaeger's drug store at Sixth and Broadway, and which residence is a landmark for this city.

Besides Mrs. Kirkland of here and Mrs. Mackey of Cincinnati, the deceased leaves two other sisters, Mrs. William J. Jones of Chicago, and Miss Nina B. Babb, of that city. Information of her death is received here with deep regret by many friends who highly esteemed and dearly loved the most charming lady.

CONTINUANCES

WERE GIVEN IN NEARLY EVERY CASE YESTERDAY BY JUDGE.

Yesterday morning in the police court there was continued over until tomorrow the warrant charging Edwin Kindell and Tom Parker with engaging in a fight.

Until tomorrow there was continued the case charging Bert West, colored, with disorderly conduct. He is the negro arrested for lurking suspiciously around the house of Barber Frank Just, of North Sixth street.

There was postponed until tomorrow the charge accusing Frank Burch with striking Noah McLaughlin with a monkeywrench. Both are helpers at the Illinois Central railroad shops.

Will Martin and Arthur Finley were each fined $5 and costs on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Bertha Shields and Mabel Martin were given a continuance of the breach of the peace charge against them.

Fred Collins was fined $1 and costs for a breach of the peace. He was convicted of fighting George Kindell.
